

CULTURAL HERITAGE DAY at Fort Ross State Historic Park

Saturday, July 31, 2010

10:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Photo: Bill Silverman

A Celebration of Russian America

From 1812 to 1841 Russian American Company Settlement Ross was home to a unique blend of cultural groups—Russians, Creoles, Native Alaskans, and Kashaya and Coast Miwok Native Californians.

Celebrate this cultural diversity and history by joining costumed participants for a festive day of singing, dancing, games, blacksmithing, spinning, needlework, storytelling, metalworking, woodworking, cooking, baking, rope-making, historic firearm interpretation and more!

Fees: $20 per car; $15 per car with senior; Bus (10+) $5.00 per person
Food for sale; Limited mobility shuttle available; Dogs are not allowed

www.fortrossstatepark.org, www.fortrossinterpretive.org

19005 Coast Highway One, Jenner, CA 95450

frinterp@parks.ca.gov

(707) 847-3286 or (707) 847-4777